Presence of Student Council and its activities for Institutional development and student welfare (5)

The university is committed towards transforming its students into holistic professionals through various extracurricular activities and showcasing the talents of the students. The emphasis is being given on student's participation in various extracurricular and co-curricular activities round the year. To manage, coordinate and smooth conduct of any extra-curricular activities for Institutional development and student welfare, the university has a student council.

To facilitate the sports activities of the students, the university has a physical trainer to run smoothly each sport and games. One faculty member has been given the responsibility as president for all sports and games events. To organize cultural activities by the students, separate faculty member has been deputed as cultural president. Again, cultural committee with the faculty members from different colleges are also in operation for monitoring of student cultural activities at different occasions throughout the year. To organize all the activities in a discipline of way, total student of the university has been divided into six houses (viz., Blue, Red, Green, Pink, Purple and Yellow) under the monitoring of faculty members with one president and two vice presidents in each house. There is one captain and two vice-captains from the students in each group. Additionally, there is wing councilor, sports and cultural committees to maintain a hygienic ambience and also to organize different co-curricular activities in all the hostels. All the activities are run by the students under the supervision of Assistant Hostel Warden/Hostel Warden in concerned hostel under the monitoring of Dean Students Welfare.

The university is also running seven units of NSS (100 students in each) under which different awareness programme, cleanliness drive, plantation etc. are organized. The NSS unit also organized Gharghar tiranga harghar tiranga campaign, Tiranga Yatra and also distributed our National flags to commemorate Azadi ka Amrit Mahotsav Through the organization of different events like Annual Sports and Games Meet, Annual Cultural Meet and other student activities, campus remains vibrant throughout the year.
